Description

Warehouse workers perform a variety of tasks that together ensure the warehouse operates smoothly and that customer satisfaction goals are met. Primary responsibilities include:

- Picking, packing, labeling, and relabeling outgoing goods.
- Maintaining and ensuring no discrepancies in stock
- May use a pallet jack safely.
- Ensuring the warehouse environment remains clean, tidy, and safe.
- Conducting regular inventory audits and reporting any stock issues or discrepancies to the warehouse leads.

Responsibilities

The day-to-day tasks of a warehouse worker are diverse and can vary depending on the specific needs of the warehouse or the industry. Typical daily duties might include:

- Loading and unloading goods
- Labeling goods stored in the warehouse for easy inventory tracking and retrieval.
- Preparing shipping documents and handling logistics details for outgoing shipments.
- Inspecting inventory for damages and reporting these to management.
- Following health and safety guidelines and company-specific warehouse procedures.
- Assisting in the coordination of logistics and supply chain operations within the warehouse.

Qualifications

- Must pass a standard background check (insurance requirement).
- A high school diploma or equivalent.
- Experience in a warehouse setting preferred.
- Physical fitness and the ability to lift, reach, stand, walk, bend are necessary.
- Strong teamwork skills, attention to detail, and the ability to work in a fast-paced environment are also important.

The role of a warehouse worker, while demanding, offers a vital contribution to the operations within the warehouse and broader supply chain processes. Ensuring you meet these qualifications and responsibilities can be key to your success in this role.
